

CHICAGO AGENT MAGAZINE

Web Edition
April 27, 2007

Dympna Fay-Hart Inducted into Hall of Fame

Leading northwest Realtor Dympna Fay-Hart was inducted into the Century 21 International Hall of Fame at their system's 2007 convention in Las Vegas. She was recognized for outstanding sales volume, long-term service and philanthropy – and is the youngest of the previous 47 members inducted out of 146,000 agents in 70 countries.

Fay-Hart was also named to the Century 21 Honor Society for attaining high customer service and high sales for five + years.

Dympna Fay-Hart is a well-known agent at Century 21 McMullen, the largest real estate firm on Chicago's northwest side, and has been there for 15 years. Professionally, she's been the #1 Realtor in Norwood Park for six consecutive years. Community-wise, she's been principal-for-a-day at Norwood Park Chicago Public Grade School for five years and was former director of the Norwood Park Chamber of Commerce. At Century 21 McMullen, she coordinated "Support Our Troops" last year and collected 40 cartons of supplies for our armed forces in Iraq.

Century 21 McMullen ranks among the larger real estate firms in Chicagoland and stands in the top 25 of 6,500 Century 21 offices nationwide. They recently developed and moved into the impressive Tuscan Terrace building at the corner of Harlem, Northwest Highway and Devon -- and are celebrating 62 years in real estate. For information, call 773-631-8300.